
DANGER!

In Pompeii (Bay of Naples ,Italy) on 24th of August AD79, there was an almighty eruption made by Mt .Vesuvius . It started at approximately 2:00am and it took about 2 days. The whole city was destroyed and every person and animal died because of the lava and ash.

Before everything happens

It was another lovely ,beautiful day in Pompeii. There were fruit and vegetables growing under their protector Mt. Vesuvius. All the citizens were doing their normal day stuff like playing games and going to the market.

Start of the eruption

save their kids lives.

First there was a little rumble and everyone thought it was a massive earthquake but it wasn't. When the people from Pompeii heard the little they just carried on with what they were doing. The people from Pompeii were not scared because they knew what it was like. The rocks had lava on them as they were tumbling down Mt. Vesuvius. The hot , burning lava was pouring down

Mt. Vesuvius. People were running everywhere, kids shouting and screaming , parents trying to

Erupted

Every person and animal tried to run away but nobody could. People went back into the houses to get their goods like jewellery and money. People tried to get on boats but sadly no one got to a boat.

Chaos

and people were like stone statues. When everyone tried to run away they were like stone statues because the ash that covered them. The pets

Buried

All the people, pets houses got buried in nine meters of ash. Nine meters is probably a size of a classroom from side to side. A few people got to safety but most people died.

The people who got to safety got their goods and sailed away. Sadly, the people sailing away were watching the homes, people and pets getting burned in ash.
