

Pompeii's biggest eruption

On august 24 our gentle mounting mount Vesuvius erupted in a huge mess. the mess covered Pompeii and some of Herculaneum Herculaneum was not destroyed as much .

Pompeii was a beautiful city until Vesuvius vanished the whole city. The city was never seen again how it was before.

The ash rose over fourteen kilometres into the air which meant that it was nine meters deep. The people of Pompeii lost their lives in a matter of seconds because of the ash and gases.

Herculaneum was part of it to every person tried to escape but they did not escape .
